1. The physical location of the company determines the tier membership price they will receive.
2. The Corporation is responsible for designating one Corporate Representative to vote on behalf of the Corporation. Unless otherwise specified the individual denoted on the corporate membership application shall be the Corporate Representative.
3. Memberships are non-refundable or transferrable.
4. Additional individual memberships can be purchased.
5. Only the Corporate Representative and/or the Primary Contact are allowed to make changes on the account and update the company profile. Updates must be submitted in writing to bicsi@bicsi.org.
6. Individual members other than the corporate representative or primary contact do not have access to the corporate account.
7. Companies receive a predetermined number of individual memberships as part of their corporate membership, which shall coincide with the corporate membership year. The membership quantity includes one corporate representative. The individual memberships run concurrently with the corporate membership in each case and will expire as part of the corporate membership. For multi-year corporate memberships, the individual membership must be updated annually from the membership begin date.
8. A company may purchase a membership for each of its offices but are not allowed to hold multiple memberships or modules within the same office.
9. Individuals who are not members do not qualify for membership discounts, even if they are employed by a corporate member. However, complimentary benefits usage is available for both members and non-members employed by the company as long as the Corporate Member is reflected on the individual’s profile and is facilitated through the Corporate Representative or Primary Contact.
10. Benefits begin on the renewal date and must be used within one membership year. Benefits will renew at the beginning of each membership year.
11. Unused benefits do not carry over.
12. Mixing and matching of benefits is not allowed.
13. The 20 percent publication discount is in addition to the membership discount. The Corporate Representative or the Primary Contact must call BICSI to receive the discount.
   • Discounts cannot be combined with any other discounts.
   • Discounts cannot be applied toward workbooks.
14. The BICSI CONNECT online courses are limited to a maximum value of $350 each.
15. Corporate members that qualify receive a new amount of Outside Vendor CECs per renewal. There is no carry-over.
16. For complimentary conference registrations outside of BICSI Winter, Fall or Canadian conferences, please contact BICSI.
17. The Corporate Buyer’s Guide App is available at bicsi.connext.io, or downloadable from the Apple® or Google Play™ stores as “BICSI Guide”.
18. For additional information, please visit our Membership Frequently Asked Questions at bicsi.org/CorporateFAQ, or contact us at bicsi@bicsi.org.
19. BICSI reserves the right to update rules and regulations from time to time. Please visit BICSI’s website or contact BICSI for the most up-to-date application.

BICSI Code of Ethics
BICSI’s Code of Ethics is based on the principles which assume that societies are governed by a profound respect for human rights and the rule of law. In addition, these principles support the thought that ethics, the criteria for determining what is right and wrong, can be agreed upon by members of an organization and that understanding matters of taste requires sensitivity to cultural norms.

BICSI has established the Ethics Committee, the Standards of Conduct and the Code of Ethics to reinforce BICSI’s position on the importance of its members and BICSI credential holders exhibiting the highest principles of ethical and professional behavior in the provision of their products and services associated with the information and communications technology (ICT) community.

The BICSI Code of Ethics provides a way for individuals to resolve situations that may be encountered that violate the BICSI Standards of Conduct.

BICSI Standards of Conduct violations:
- Expulsion: A complete termination of membership and/ or credential holder status or any affiliation with BICSI. An expulsion is published to membership and the general public. It will remain permanently on his/her record. An appeal process is available.
- Suspension: A temporary revocation of the rights and privileges of membership and/ or credential holder status or any affiliation with BICSI. A suspension is entered into the member/ credential holder’s record and is published to membership or the general public. An appeal process is available.
- Censure: A formal written expression of criticism and disapproval for a violation. A censure is entered into the member/ credential holder’s record and is published to membership or the general public. An appeal process is available.
- Reprimand: a serious written warning. A reprimand is entered into a member/ credential holder’s record and is not published to membership or the general public. An appeal process is available.
- Admonishment: a written warning. An admonishment is not published to membership or the general public.

Disciplinary actions include:
- It is everyone’s responsibility to report to the BICSI Ethics Committee any violations of the BICSI Standards of Conduct, including, but not limited to:
  - Misrepresenting or misstating accurate and truthful dealings in customer relationship and services provided.
  - Misrepresenting or misstating accurate and truthful presentation of educational material and profession-related documentation.
  - Misrepresenting or misstating another individual’s qualifications, abilities and/ or accomplishments.
  - Misleading in the adherence of applicable codes, laws, industry standards and BICSI methodologies.
  - Using misleading statements or malicious actions that result in injuring a colleague’s reputation or physically harming a person or property.
  - Misusing of BICSI credentials stamps and/ or BICSI’s logo.
  - Discriminating against an individual based on age, race, national origin, color, sex, sexual orientation, disability or religious belief.

Complaints may also be filed relating to concerns of fraudulent claims of BICSI membership, registrations or certifications.

Retaliation against anyone filing a complaint to the Ethics Committee constitutes a violation of the Standards of Conduct and will be treated as unethical conduct and will be subject to disciplinary action.
